Your Villa Vacation Planning Worksheet

A villa vacation is unique because it can be tailored to exactly what you want. Take a moment to answer these 3 key questions that will help define your ideal vacation.

1. What is the nature of your vacation?

- Who will be traveling? A couple, a family (small children or teenagers), or a larger group?
- How do you want to fill your days and nights? Is it time to fully relax or to keep busy exploring the destination? How much time will you spend at your villa?

2. What amenities are most important to you?

- Each villa (and destination) is unique and offers different amenities. What would make your stay complete? Pool, hi-tech entertainment center, gourmet kitchen, hi-speed internet, a gym, complete solitude...
- The neighborhoods and towns within a destination are all distinctive. Would you rather be on top of a hill with expansive views or closer to the water or town?
- What will keep your entire group entertained and happy? There are different house layouts and bedroom configurations. How will you use the indoor and outdoor areas?

3. What are your villa vacation requirements?

- Desired destination (Caribbean or Europe) : _____
- Approximate travel dates (fixed or flexible?): _____
- Number in party: Adults: _____ Children (& ages): _____
- Villa price range: $ _____
